THE ART STUDENTS LEAGUE PRESENTS

Remembering 9/11 A Virtual Exhibition by the League Community

Live September 1, 2021

Aiko Cascio, Twin Towers

(New York, NY): Marking the 20th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, an event that impacted the whole world, The Art Students League is honoring our community's shared memories of 9/11 by displaying the work of artists in the virtual group exhibition: Remembering 9/11, which will launch on our website on September 1, 2021. This exhibition features work by former and current League students, members, and instructors that is informed by their remembrance of 9/11. The city of New York was especially affected; our communities and families came together to provide support and care in a way that continues to this day. Many still feel the effects of both the loss and the love that was shared in the aftermath of these devastating events, and our collective healing is often reflected in the art we create and share.

About The Art Students League of New York:

The League was founded in 1875 by students breaking away from the National Academy of Design. That independent spirit remains at The League today, where students pursue their work unconstrained by dogma, politics or burdensome tuition. We educate students in the language and process of making art in an environment where anyone who wishes to pursue arts education can realize his or her full potential. The League fulfills this mission by offering affordable, high-quality education and instruction in painting, drawing, printmaking, sculpture and assemblage. Artists who have studied at the League include Georgia O'Keeffe, Norman Rockwell, Jackson Pollock, Robert Rauschenberg, Louise Bourgeois, Alexander Calder, James Rosenquist and Ai-Weiwei, among others.
