Student Salon 2019

(New York, NY): The Art Students League of New York is pleased to present its annual series of weekly Student Salons. Every year from January through mid-May, works by current League students can be discovered on display in the Phyllis Harriman Mason Gallery, located on the second floor of the League. The exhibitions showcase work from every discipline taught at The League (including painting, drawing, printmaking, sculpture, and mixed media). The exhibitions are rotated weekly with several classes included in each installation. The Salons offer the opportunity to become familiar with the work created in League classes as well as encounter work by artists in the early stages of their careers. The exhibitions are open to the public and the gallery staff is happy to facilitate introductions to the artists should visitors be interested in purchasing works.

About The Art Students League of New York:

The League was founded in 1875 by students breaking away from the National Academy of Design. That independent spirit remains at The League today, where students pursue their work unconstrained by dogma, politics or burdensome tuition. We educate students in the language and process of making art in an environment where anyone who wishes to pursue arts education can realize his or her full potential. The League fulfills this mission by offering affordable, high-quality education and instruction in painting, drawing, printmaking, sculpture and assemblage. Artists who have studied at the League include Georgia O'Keeffe, Norman Rockwell, Jackson Pollock, Robert Rauschenberg, Louise Bourgeois, Alexander Calder, James Rosenquist and Ai-Weiwei, among others. theartstudentsleague.org
