THE ART STUDENTS LEAGUE PRESENTS

2022 Instructor Salon

An Exhibition of Work by Current League Instructors

September 8–October 16, 2022

Phyllis Harriman Mason Gallery

Jeff Buckland, Walking Whale, 2018. Digital Print, 16 x 20 in.

A tradition that's more than a century old, The Art Students League of New York's annual Instructor Salon is an exhibition of work by current League instructors. This year's salon, which features work by a group of nearly 100 accomplished artists, reflects the broad range of styles and subjects taught at The League in an exemplary display of our community's creative powers.

The Art Students League of New York was founded in 1875 by students breaking away from the National Academy of Design. That independent spirit remains at The League today, where students pursue their work unconstrained by dogma, politics, or burdensome tuition. The League educates students in the language and process of making art in an environment where anyone who wishes to pursue arts education can realize their full potential. The League fulfills this mission by offering affordable, high-quality education and instruction in painting, drawing, printmaking, sculpture, and assemblage. Artists who have studied at The League include Georgia O'Keeffe, Norman Lewis, Robert Rauschenberg, Emilio Sanchez, Yayoi Kusama, and Ai-Weiwei, among others.
